2 Chronicles 30, Daniel 10, Acts 10

Thy words were heard

Hezekiah sought Yahweh Elohim and sent letters to all Israel that they should come to Jerusalem to keep the Passover, “Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.” (2C30:6) serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you. (2C30:8) Most laughed but some came of Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one That prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary. And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. (2Ch 30:18-20) All the congregation rejoiced.

Daniel sees a vision in the 3rd year of Cyrus. The Angel said, “Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. (Dan 10:12) And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me. (Dan 10:19)

A man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. (Act 10:1-4) His words were heard and Peter is sent to him to witness that the Gentiles are not unclean if cleansed by God.
